THE Governors of Mr. Guy's Hospital, having been censured as acting contrary to the intention of the Founder, by discharging persons from the benefit of his Charity, because they were incurable; they think it necessary to justify themselves: And to this end they have reprinted his Will, which alone might be sufficient to remove this mistake, his intention being therein very plainly expressed and declared.

He himself apprehended, and his suspicions were confirm'd by those he consulted, that the word, Incurable, was of too large and indefinite a signification: And, indeed, People generally understood by it, such as labour'd under distempers, loss of limbs, blindness, and other natural or accidental deformities, and even age itself. And if taken in such an extensive sense, his Hospital must soon have become an Almshouse, into which (to use his own Words) Parishes, as well as particular persons, would shift off from them.

*themselves the burthen of their dependents and indigent relations, to be provided for during their lives ; which he foresaw, and often spoke of with great concern to several of his Executors and other persons yet living ; and accordingly has described the persons, for whose relief he designed his Hospital, to be such as are * thought capable of relief by Physick or Surgery, and has submitted the several species or kinds of sick persons deemed or called incurables, and also the time of continuing them in his Hospital to the Discretion and pleasure of his Trustees.*

Besides this mistake about the conduct of the Trustees, there have been attempts to defame the memory of the Worthy and Charitable Founder himself, as doing no good in his life-time ; but heaping up a great estate with an ostentatious design of founding an Hospital at his death.

Facts best answer such invidious suggestions :

Many of his poor, tho' distant relations, had stated allowances from him of Ten or Twenty pounds a year, and occasionally larger Sums ; and to two of them

* Vid. Will, p. 37, 38, 39, 40.

he gave Five hundred pounds apiece to advance them in the World.

He has several times given fifty pounds for discharging insolvent Debtors.

He has readily given a hundred pounds at a time on application to him in behalf of a distressed Family.

These are some of his good deeds which are come to light since his death; from which every one must be convinced, that his private acts of charity were many and great; and from their secrecy, that they flow'd from a right principle.

Some of his more publick benefactions were as follow :

Early in life he began the erection of an Alms-house at Tamworth for fourteen poor People, and maintained them to the time of his death, and then endow'd it for ever.

He contributed one hundred pounds in the year 1709 to the Brief for the poor Palatines, and the like sum to St. Thomas's Hospital on account of the admission of a great many of those among them who were sick and disabled.

When he met with such diseased and friendless Objects as wanted the help of an Hospital, he was used to send them to St. Thomas's, with directions to the Steward, Steward, to supply them, at his Expence, with Cloaths, and such other Necessaries as are not provided by the Hospital.

Sixteen years before his death he built and furnished three Wards in St. Thomas's Hospital, for the reception of sixty-four patients. He rebuilt two large Houses at the front of it, and adorned the entrance between them; which together cost him between two and three thousand pounds.

He gave one hundred pounds a year to that Hospital for eleven years successively, till he began to build his own; which he lived to see almost finished, and cost him about fourteen thousand pounds.

From these instances, it is easy, to judge, on which side Charity has been wanting.

Now I give and devise unto John Cheatly, and John Blood, yeomen; Joseph Blood, and Arthur Alcock, clothiers; Thomas Orton yeoman; John Radford, Robert Blood, and the said John Osborn, citizen and stationer of London, all that my Alms-house or building, containing sixteen rooms, fourteen of which said rooms are now used and employed for the habitation of fourteen poor men and women; and the other two rooms, being laid together, are used for a Library, with the House-of-Office, Gardens, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, situate, lying, and being partly in Gumgate-street, and partly in School-house-Lane in Tamworth, in the County of Warwick, to hold to them the said John Cheatly, John Blood, Joseph Blood, Arthur Alcock, Thomas Orton, John Radford, Robert Blood, and John Osborn, their heirs and assigns for ever, in trust, nevertheless, and to and for the uses, intents, and purposes herein after mentioned; that is to say, That my said Trustees, and the survivors of them, and such others

And for and in respect of the sum of thirty five pounds, remainder of the said yearly sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds, upon Trust, and to the intent that my said last mentioned Trustees, and such as shall succeed them, as aforesaid, for ever, shall and do apply the same to the putting out children apprentice, nursing, or such like charitable deed, of four, six, or eight such poor persons and desire is, that my said Executors and Trustees, by such Letters Patent

And that in and by such Letters Patent, or Act of Parliament, it be further provided and appointed, That the management and accounts of the said Committee of twenty one, be from time to time subject to the approbation or disallowance of a General Court or Assembly of the members or Governors of such intended Corporation, to be from time to time convened and summoned by proper and convenient notice by the President or Treasurer of such intended Corporation for the time being.

any

any of the said gentlemen last above named, or their refusal to accept of the respective trusts hereby intended, as President, Treasurer, or Members of the said Committee, then such other fit and able persons to be named and appointed by my said Executors, to be President, Treasurer, or Members of the said Committee, making up the said number of twenty one. And that, by such Letters Patent, or Act of Parliament, as aforesaid, it be provided and granted, that the future elections of the President, and Treasurer of the said intended Corporation, and also the election of the Physicians and Surgeons, and of the Register or Clerk, and Solicitor, and of the Chaplain, to be employed in and about the Charity hereby intended, be referred to, and reserved for the Members and Governors of the said intended Corporation, or the major part of them, in General Court assembled as aforesaid; as also their removal, displacing, and filling up; and that the offices of Apothecary, Steward, Matron, Cook, Sisters, and all other officers to be employed in and about the building, or other the necessary charges and disbursements for the purposes aforesaid, in the purchase of messuages, lands, ground-rents, fee-farm rents, or other Estates of Inheritance, or the reversions thereof in fee-simple,

 to the intent that the yearly or other Rents and Profits of such purchases, together with the Rents and Profits of the said residuary part of my real Estate, be from time to time applied to, and become a perpetual provision for the maintenance and cure of such poor sick persons as are to be received into and entertained in the said intended Hospital, and for defraying and answering all other the constant necessary charges and expences

in and about the same; and that until the said residuary part of my personal Estate shall be laid out in purchases, as aforesaid, the interests, dividends, and other Incomes or Profits thereof, be from time to time applied to such purposes as are before appointed for the application of the Rents and Profits of such purchases, as aforesaid.

And my mind and will further is, That if it shall appear to the said President, Treasurer, and Governors, to be incorporated as aforesaid, that the yearly and other Rents and Profits of the said residuary part of my real Estate, and of the lands, messuages, or other Estates, to be purchased as aforesaid, shall be more than sufficient to provide for and answer the maintenance and cure of such poor sick persons, as are hereby directed to be received into and entertained in the said two new squares of building, and other necessary charges and expences upon or about the said intended Hospital, it shall be lawful for the said President, Treasurer, and Governors, incorincorporated as aforesaid, in General Court to be assembled and convened, as aforesaid, or the major part of them, to lay out, expend, and apply, or direct and impower the said Committee to lay out, expend, and apply such Surplus of the Rents and Profits of the said residuary part of my real Estate, and of other the messuages, lands, and other estates to be purchased, as aforesaid, to and for the relief of such other poor sick persons, or such other proper objects of compassion, as from time to time to the said President, Treasurer, and Governors incorporated, as aforesaid, shall appear most worthy and deserving of pity and relief; or for such other publick and charitable Uses and Purposes as they shall think convenient.

And I do hereby revoke and annul, and declare to be null and void, all and every other Will and Wills by me at any time or times heretofore made, declaring this to be my only last Will and Testament; in witness whereof I have to the same, contained in seventeen sheets of paper, and to one other part thereof, contained in

GUY'S HOSPITAL.—SPECIAL APPEAL for £100,000.—At a MEETING, held at the MANSION HOUSE, on MONDAY, the 20th December, 1886, the Right Hon. the LORD MAYOR in the Chair.—Present:—H.B.H. the Duke of Cambridge, the Right Rev. the Bishop of Rochester, H.E. Cardinal Manning, Henry H. Gibbs, Esq., President of Guy's Hospital; Dr. Pavy, Senior Physician, and Thos. Bryant, Esq., Senior Surgeon, and other Noblemen and Gentlemen.

The following Resolutions were unanimously passed:—

1. This Meeting, being satisfied that the present diminished income of Guy's Hospital is inadequate to keep open the number of beds necessary for the wants of the population, is of opinion that this deficiency should be met by an immediate appeal to the public.

2. That, considering the past history of the Hospital, its valuable work as a medical charity, and the universal benefits from its School of Medicine and Surgery, an effort be now made to obtain the sum of 100,000*l.* towards restoring to the Institution the means for maintaining it in full working order.
